A juror during deliberations poses the following questions, as to each write in how you would respond and what follow up steps, if any you would take in response to the question:

1. How long will we be in deliberations today, I need to make child care arrangements?
2. What time is dinner being brought in?
3. I saw another juror review notes he had taken at trial while we were deliberating, can we consider his notes while deliberating?
4. When will we be getting the transcript of the testimony?

Of the following list in items you find the jurors have as they are entering deliberations, check the ones you will ask they leave behind:

- | | | | |
